BIOGRAPHICAL DETAILS CONTD.

- ❑ 1642: Milton married Mary Powell, 17 years old to his 34, but the relationship was an unhappy one, prompting him to write his so-called 'Divorce Tracts' speaking for divorce on the grounds of incompatibility.
- ❑ Later reconciled and had several children.
- ❑ 1649: the Cromwellian government appointed Milton Secretary for Foreign Tongues.
- ❑ 1652 was a year of many personal losses. In February, Milton lost his sight, prompted him to write the sonnet "When I Consider How My Light is Spent" In May, Mary gave birth to a daughter, Deborah, and died a few days later. In June, one-year-old John died.
- ❑ 1656: Milton married Katherine Woodcock. Milton's daughter Katherine was born in late 1657, but by early 1658, both mother and daughter had passed away
- ❑ 1663: Milton remarried again, to Elizabeth Minshull.
- ❑ He spent his time tutoring students and finishing his life's work, the epic, Paradise Lost, among the greatest works ever to be written in English. The feat is all the more remarkable for Milton's blindness. He would compose verse upon verse at night in his head and then dictate them from memory to his aides in the morning.
