

REPORT
ON INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

IQAC and Political Science R.S Mundle Dharmapeth Arts and Commerce college conducted an Online National Seminar on Intellectual Property Rights. College collaborated with the signature institute of Rajeev Gandhi Institute of Intellectual Property Rights. It was a collaborative activity and Dr. Manjushree Sardeshpande and Dr. Govindraja Bhatta were the conveners of the seminar. Dr. Tanuja Nafde Principal R.S Mundle Arts and Commerce College addressed the introductory session. The resource person of the seminar was the eminent speaker Dr. Ushoshri Guha, recipient of the Global Peace Award in 2019. Dr. Guha informed us about the difference between copyright and copy left. Additionally, she also gave us food for thought about why is it important to register your knowledge. Moreover, members also got to know about branches of Intellectual Property Rights.

Furthermore, there was a discussion about trademarks, patents, and designs. Another eminent speaker at the event was Dr. Pooja Maulikar madam, who spoke about the Ministry of Commerce and Industry. She also spread the light on the significance of Intellectual property rights with various examples of zip, and telephone and further gave us information on trademarks. Topics like who can apply for a patent, what is the procedure, and how to do it was spoken by Dr. Bharat Suryavanshi. He is an expertise in IPR and again added shared the importance of procedures of patent and Invention.
