Report of World Literacy Day Celebration

The English Department took the initiative of celebrating the World Literacy Day. The programme was organised on 7 September 2023. Ms. Disha Pathak of Aksharam Institute of Languages was invited as the resource person.

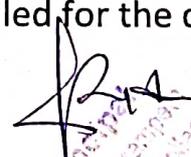

Dr.Manjushree Sardeshpande, Head, Department of English spoke at length about the importance of Literacy. She also informed the students about the initiative of the department to teach a foreign language i.e German language to the students along with English. The students would get the benefit of learning this language free of cost. Ms. Disha in her speech highlighted the importance of different languages. She introduced the German Language to the students. 53 students attended the programme.

Outcome of the Programme.

On this day the students were introduced to German Language. Understanding different people and different culture is indeed important in the age of globalization. This would be helpful in fetching employment too. A Certificate Course in German Language was launched. This would be of 30 days. The course received a huge response as many students enrolled for the course.
